

MILLARD COMMUNITY COVENANT CHURCH

Online Worship Sunday at 9 a.m.

June 21, 2020

Upcoming Events

Worship is live online at 9:00 a.m. each Sunday. This summer, we're exploring the 23rd Psalm, with its themes of faith, trust, and dependence on God—one of the most familiar and beloved passages in the Bible. Tune in live or come back and watch later on our Facebook page. A Facebook account is not required to visit our page or view the service. Sermon audio is also available at www.millardchurch.com or on CD by request. If you are wondering when we will gather in the building again, the short answer is, "We don't know!" Walworth County still recommends that fewer than ten people gather in church.

Check out the new music we'll be singing on Sunday! Visit our new music playlist here, or find the link on our Facebook page. This week: "King of My Heart."

Carillons are Back! Hymns are once again ringing out from the church at noon and 6 p.m. Listen with us in the parking lot this Monday at 6 p.m. (weather permitting). You may stay in your car. If you do get out, please stay at least six feet away from others. The original carillons were given by Don and Elsie Schoenbeck. The restored carillons are dedicated to Mary Jane Broedelet, Joyce Lawton, Jim LeMay, Jim Meisel,
