CROP HUNGER WALK

ENDING HUNGER ONE STEP AT A TIME

CROP Hunger Walk is Oct. 3rd

This fall we have an opportunity to join with more than a dozen other Walworth County churches for the 36th Annual Lake Geneva Area CROP Hunger Walk on Sunday, October 3rd, at 1:00 p.m. This event is a fundraiser for the fight against global hunger, with 75% of proceeds going toward world hunger relief through Church World Service and 25% supporting local foodbanks. The walk takes place in the beautiful Kishwauketoe Nature Conservancy as well as the village and lakefront of Williams Bay, and there are four distances to choose from: stroller walk, 1-mile, 3-mile, or 6-mile. Contact our team captain Donna Marshall (262-949-9705/tomarshall60@yahoo.com) to sign up or for more information.

In Appreciation

Sandy Johnson has recently accepted a new job, so she won't be able to return this fall as our regular pianist and choir director. She says, "I have very much enjoyed working at Millard and will miss everyone there that have become like family to me. I will miss you all and your joy of music, too." We will miss Sandy and her contributions to our music ministry, but we wish her the best with her new job and hope to see her back from time to time. Thank you, Sandy, for all you've done for our choir and for music at Millard Church!
