Celebrating Fathers... and Brothers in Christ

Both of my parents lost their fathers when they were teenagers, and those losses made a big impact. This week my own father is celebrating a milestone birthday and one that means that he has out-lived his own father by twenty years. My sister and I have had the benefit of a lot more time with him. Father's Day is a unique holiday for spending time with and saying thank you to the dads, grandpas, and uncles in our lives who love and support us.

But let's not stop there. In the church, water is thicker than blood. The men we are connected to in baptism are closer brothers than even in our families. This is what the Bible teaches about the family of God. Let's also appreciate the men in our church family who pray, teach, serve, lead, and care. You are the spiritual fathers and we thank God for you!

-Pastor Sharon
