“This is Love”, Ash Wednesday Prayer:

February 14, marks the beginning of Lent, the forty-day season leading up to Easter. It is a day for re-turning to the Lord and for new beginnings in faith.

“This Is Love” is a self-guided prayer experience through six interactive prayer stations based on the letter of 1 John.

The sanctuary will be open 7 a.m. – 7 p.m.

Come when you like and proceed at your own pace.

Allow at least 30 minutes to complete all 6 stations.

Board Meeting, Monday, February 19, 6:30 p.m.

*On February 11, the five people from our church who traveled to the Dominican Republic will share stories and pictures from their trip. We can’t wait to hear how God has been at work!

“Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.” Romans 12:12 Sometimes prayer is hard. Sometimes we feel bored or disconnected and we wonder if it’s worth the effort. But let’s stop to think about the people with whom we spend the most time. These are probably also the people we know the best. It’s probably the friends we talk with the most or the family members with whom we share ordinary moments. Our time with the ones we know the best is not always exciting. Often our conversations are mundane or there’s not much to say at all. We’re close because we’re together. Our relationship with God is similar. If we feel excited every time we pray, we are probably new to prayer. Don’t give up on prayer if it seems like not much meaningful is happening. God is present. He knows us better than we know ourselves, and we get to know him by spending time with him, day by day, year after year. By Pr Sharon
