"You Have Heard It Said" The teachings of Jesus frequently contrast with the messages we hear in the broader culture, in conventional religion, and, sometimes, common sense. From now until Easter we'll be exploring the powerful and life-changing words of Jesus according to Matthew. The Gospel of Matthew places an emphasis on Jesus' teachings. Collected into five major sermons, Jesus' words reveal God's intentions for how his followers are to live, love and serve as members of God's kingdom.

The season of Lent is a time for reflection. Scripture, mixed with prayer and time is a good recipe for gaining spiritual insights as we prepare for Holy Week and Easter. If you weren't able to come out for the Ash Wednesday Prayer Stations, spend some time with Matthew 5:1-12. Jesus begins his most well-known sermon with poetry. The ones who will be blessed in the kingdom of heaven are not the strongest and the loudest. Instead, Jesus lifts up the meek, the merciful, and the peacemakers. How can we align our lives more with the kingdom of heaven and the Jesus way? -Pastor Sharon Covenant Harbor is raising money for a new dining facility to replace the current lodge that has served the camp well for 75 years. As of early December, 93% of the funds have already been raised! Visit covenantharbor.org or call the camp if you can help Covenant Harbor cross the finish line for this project.

Thank you to Pastor Linda, who led the service last week, and the Dominican Republic mission team members, who shared with us the “ins and outs” of this mission work!
